BLOOMFIELD, NEW JERSEY, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1885.

[PRICE, $2.00 PER YEAR.

THE BLOOMFIELD CITIZEN

A WEEKLY JOURNAL

LOCAL NEWS AND HOME READING.

Published at the Post Office at Bloomfield as second class matter.

Office: Over the Post Office.

Office Hours: From 7:45 to 9 o'clock P. M. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Special Notice.

The office of the CITIZEN is open Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, from 7:45 to 9 o'clock. Contributions should be sent to the office not later than Thursday evening.

The author's name must accompany all communications or contributions to the CITIZEN (which will be published or not as desired). All others will be rejected.

ABOUT TOWN.

Work on the new hotel has been temporarily discontinued.

You can get your supper in the hall on Monday and Tuesday.

The Essex boys expect many visiting friends at their Bazar.

Adam Metz is confined to his bed by a severe attack of rheumatism.

Do not forget the Bazar at Library Hall Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Watessing Lake reappeared in all its glory on Monday during the heavy storm.

Washington's Birthday, falling on Sunday this year, will be celebrated on Monday.

Excellent sleighing since Saturday has caused the town to present an exceedingly lively appearance.

The Whist Club met Tuesday evening at Mr. Frederick Harrison's, Beach street, and had a good time.

Caldwell Lodge, No. 59, F. and A. M., celebrated their twenty-third anniversary on Thursday evening.

Buy a copy of Essex, No. 1, the paper of Essex H. and L. Co., for sale at the Bazar; price five cents.

Rev. H. L. Wells, of Newark, exchanged pulpits with Rev. H. W. Ballantine last Sunday morning.

Special attractions at the roller skating rink on Washington's Birthday and during the week. Be sure and attend.

Library Hall was opened on Wednesday night with an alleged entertainment given by the Newark Lyceum Club.

Mr. William Linder and John H. Lockwood attended the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias, at Trenton, on Thursday.

The Township Committee will hold a special meeting on next Tuesday for passing upon the recommendations for appropriations.

In a tussle which followed an attempt to put a man out Metz's Hotel on Tuesday night, the stove was upset and a fire narrowly avoided.

By request of W. S. Pierson Post, G. A. R., the Public Ground Committee will place a new rope in the pulley of the flagpole on the park before Washington's Birthday.

Mr. Jarvis Peloubet sailed for Europe on Saturday last on the steamer Germania, of the White Star line. He had engaged passage on the Alaska, but owing to her mishap he sailed as above stated.

All friends desiring headstones procured for deceased soldiers, buried in Bloomfield cemetery, will confer a favor by sending to John H. Cuckfair, the regiment, company, and date of death. We wish all the graves to be marked by placing the stone at the head of the grave.

Dr. John Donnelly is holding a series of temperance meetings in the Montgomery Park school house, assisted by a number of prominent temperance workers. All having an interest in temperance are cordially invited to attend these meetings—thus helping along the good work.

Rev. D. R. Lowrie's subject for Sabbath morning in the Park M. E. Church, is "Love for Childhood." "The great work of Moody and Sankey" will be the subject of the evening discourse. There is a deep religious interest in the above church, and special services are being held.

While Arthur Lloyd was driving through New street on Tuesday morning delivering orders, the front axle of his wagon suddenly gave way and let the body down. As Mr. Lloyd was endeavoring to right the wagon his feet caught in the shaft, and it was with considerable difficulty that he was extricated.

"Essex No. 1."

We have received a copy of Essex No. 1, a paper devoted to the interests of Essex Hook and Ladder Company. It is the official organ of the Bazar which is to be held at Library Hall February 23d and 24th. The paper presents a very neat appearance and contains an account of the Bloomfield Fire Department from its formation, Essex Hook and Ladder Company and Phoenix Hose Company, also other town organizations, and a programme of the Bazar. The firemen have done much for the safety and comfort of our town and receive high praise from all sources, for the efficiency and unity they have shown in all cases where they have been called upon. They have saved the town much loss by their promptness in times of danger, and as their Bazar is to increase their facilities, we heartily commend it to our readers, and wish them success in their undertaking. This is all the more worthy of our support as the firemen volunteer their services, and we know not who may be the next to need them. Do not fail to buy a copy of Essex No. 1, on sale at the Bazar, as it is well worth reading and preserving.

Seminary Lectures.

The winter course of seminary lectures commences on Monday evening, March 3d. There will be four lectures in the course. Their primary object, as in previous courses, will be to give real instruction, but the lectures are a guarantee that the instruction will be lively and attractive. The first lecture will be by Mr. Cope Whitehouse, a son of the late Bishop Whitehouse. He has penetrated into parts of Egypt where few Englishmen have been. His lecture will be a substantial repetition of his lecture delivered before the Institute of Christian Philosophy, which awakened so much interest in New York. His subject will be "The Egypt of the Pentateuch."

Rev. James F. Riggs, who delivers the second lecture on "Rare and Interesting Books," will be remembered for his annual lecture in one of the seminary courses, on the Suez Canal. Rev. Dr. Seibert proposes to deliver his lecture on Goethe's "Faust," in the German tongue, but he should be induced to put it into English for the benefit of all. The fourth lecture is on "Problems in Biology," by Prof. Macloskie, of Princeton, who is an authority in his department.

Professor Young and Dr. McCosh have consented to deliver lectures in a future course.

Township Committee Meeting.

The meeting of the Township Committee Wednesday evening was attended by all the members, and by other officers of the township. The annual report of Overseer of the Poor J. M. Walker was presented and passed. It shows the work accomplished to be greater and the expenses to be less than last year of over $600. Mr. C. E. McDowell, who built the stone road on Broad street, presented a bill for $150 for extra work, accompanied by a letter stating that he could have been saved expenses to that amount if the committee had not caused a delay in establishing and preparing the grade. The Council stated that as the contract had been settled in full it would be improper to make any further payments.

Town Counsel said that of the eleven insane persons admitted into the asylum, for which the Freeholders demanded payment of bond by the township, only two were pauper patients of the township, and admitted by authority. For these two the township could perhaps be held responsible, but the nine others either had no legal residence here or were placed there by their friends.

The Bazar.

The arrangement for the Bazar under the management of Essex Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1, on the afternoons and evenings of Monday and Tuesday next, have been fully made, and a brilliant scene is promised. The Loan Collection will be shown in the upper hall, and in variety and interest will exceed last year's display. The attractions consist of Art Table, Fancy Table, Stationery Table, Flower Bower, Paper Flower Table, Confectionery Table, Gypsy Camp, Lemonade Well, Cane Stand, etc.

An attractive refreshment parlor will be arranged on the stage. A handsome black fur robe will be awarded by vote to the most popular horseman in Bloomfield or Montclair, and a rubber fire coat and boots will go the Essex county fireman receiving the greatest number of votes. The company paper published for the Bazar, and for sale in the hall, contains interesting sketches of the Fire Departments of Bloomfield and Montclair, of various local organizations and full particulars of the different attractions. Contributions for the Bazar should be sent to the ladies in charge of the various tables or to the hall on Monday forenoon.

The hall will be thoroughly warmed by new heating apparatus and handsomely decorated. Music will be furnished on Tuesday evening.

Little Tim's Mistake.—Little Tim—Good night mamma. Mamma—Why, you must not go to bed yet. You have not had your supper. Little Tim—Oh, no, I'm not going to bed. Little Tim—Go play, child. This is my new Mother Hubbard.
